

BISHOP'S APPEAL – The Moncton Diocese has reinstated its annual Bishop's Appeal campaign so that it may continue answering its present and new needs. You may have received a letter inviting you to take part in this campaign. We encourage you to respond generously so that the diocese may continue to fulfill the mission of the Church. For more information, phone 506.857.9531, ext. 292.

CONFIRMATION CANDIDATES throughout the English Deanery are invited to join Archbishop André Richard at Our Lady of the Assumption Cathedral on Tuesday, January 17th at 6:30 p.m. You will be welcomed at our diocesan mother church, along with the other young people your age from the various parishes of the diocese who are preparing for Confirmation this spring. The evening will conclude approximately at 9:00 p.m.

FROM THE DIOCESAN OFFICE OF FAITH DEVELOPMENT

The winter book study begins this Wednesday, January 11th at Holy Family Church Hall at 7:00 p.m. In her book, The Other Side of Chaos: Breaking Through when Life is Breaking Down, British born writer and retreat director Margaret Silf, writes: "We will ... take the journey in faith - not the kind of faith that knows all the answers and has mapped out the right and proper paths, but the faith that says simply, 'I don't know, but I trust.'" During times of chaos and confusion, when the world as we know it will no longer look the same, it is a challenge to continue to live our faith in trust - trust that the one who has breathed us into being will be present with us in the messiness. Yet, this trust is crucial if we are to come out on "the other side of chaos" in a "harvest ... [we] can't begin to imagine." Join us with your questions and your stories, as we reflect together with the guidance of Margaret Silf, what exactly is "the other side of chaos." Books are $15.00 each and are available from the Vision Bookstore. To register and reserve your copy of the book, contact Ellen Bennett at 857-9531, ext. 227 or ellen.diocesemoncton@nb.aibn.com.
